

Trigonometry Project Assessment Rubric

Names of group members: _____

| | 4 | 3 | 2 | 1 |
|------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accuracy | All your answers are reasonable and you used proper trigonometry to calculate them. | Most of your answers are reasonable, you made some errors in your calculations. | Some of your answers are way off and there are a number of errors in your calculations. | Most of your answers are unreasonable, there are many errors in your work. |
| Clarity | You have a diagram for each task, your work is neatly and clearly laid out. Answers are easy to find and have correct units. | You have diagrams for most of your tasks, your work is fairly clearly laid out and answers are easy to find with correct units. | You are missing a number of diagrams, your work is not clearly laid out and it isn't always easy to find your answers. Some units are missing. | You have little or no diagrams. Much of your work is missing. Answers may not have units. |
| Reflection | Your reflection is thoughtful and has good explanations for differences in answers, problems you encountered with solutions noted and good insights into what you learned. | You have addressed all the aspects asked for in your reflection, but you have not gone into much depth in some areas. | While you did address most of the aspects asked for in your reflection, you did not put a lot of thought into your answers. Reflection is quite short. | Your reflection did not address all aspects asked for. You did not go into any depth with any of your reflections. |

Total mark: _____/12